

Helmholtz Lectures 2021-2022

Time: 16:00-17:00

Hybrid format: Remote talks can be watched together at Experimental Psychology;
In person talks will also be streamed.

All talks (including remote) followed by drinks at Experimental Psychology
(Langeveld Building, Heidelberglaan 1, room H0.10)

12 November 2021 - Timothy Brady

University of California San Diego, USA

Why intuitive theories of memory lead us wrong: memory representations are continuous strength, population-based and hierarchical.

Location: REMOTE

<https://uu-nl.zoom.us/j/92569578985?pwd=YINnenFGQUUrRms4Q3AwNVA3R2dsQT09>

3 December 2021 - Rob McIntosh

University of Edinburgh, UK

(Re)discovering the core character of spatial neglect

Location: REMOTE

(Link to follow later)

14 January 2022 (16:00-19:00) - 'In Silico', Noah Hutton

<https://insilicofilm.com/>

This is a film screening and will be held in person on campus ONLY.

The film documents the quest to simulate the human brain in supercomputers.

The film lasts 90 minutes (until 17:30). It will be followed by optional drinks, a question-and-answer session with the director, and a discussion workshop.

We expect a corona pass to be required, as this is a public film screening.

Registration is free, but required. Registration will close on December 18th.

Please register by December 18th at: <https://bit.ly/3BSuxXr>

Location: Educatorium Megaron

18 February 2022 - Hilde Geurts

University of Amsterdam, NL

TBA

Location: TBA (IN PERSON)

(Link to follow later)

25 March 2022 - Frans Cornelissen

University of Groningen, NL

Imaging human neural interactions in health and disease

Location: TBA (IN PERSON)

(Link to follow later)